Vol 7 issue 10

Here we go again the end of the year is near and Time Change will make getting a round of Golf in late in the day means starting at noon or there abouts. As for me and my friends we do not like this time of the year only because of the time thing. We enjoy playing all year long in SC and thats the good thing about living in this great state.

In this issue I have placed the top 25 according to a board of golfers you check it out and see if you agree with them. I don't, but I am not on the board. We have great courses through out the state to enjoy and it would be hard for me to chose which would be in my top 25. Okay its getting colder and it would do you well to make sure that before you play you take the time to get loose and get the blood running so you don't hurt yourself. As always make sure that you dress according to the weather and layer yourself so you can remove or add what you need to enjoy that round of Golf

Hit it straight and Long and may all your putts find the Hole.

HT Senior Championship Moves to Hilton Head Island

HILTON HEAD, S.C. The Harris Teeter Senior Amateur Golf Tour will host its ninth tour championship Nov. 13-14 at Port Royal Plantation.

This is the first time the championship, which includes golfers from 14 Harris Teeter Senior Amateur Tours across the East Coast, will be contested on Hilton Head Island. The eight previous tour championships were held in the Pinehurst region of North Carolina.

"We're excited to move the championship to a new market," said tour president Dennis McCormac. "We've worked with Port Royal before and it's a natural fit for our tour finals. Plus, they have a brand new clubhouse which will be used extensively during the tournament."

A field of about 200 competitors is expected to tee it up on the Robber's Row and Planter's Row courses at Port Royal during this 36-hole stroke-play championship. Tour members are encouraged to arrive early for practice rounds on Nov. 11 and 12, and to experience the island's many offerings.

For information on the 2007 Harris Teeter Senior Amateur Tour Championship, visit www.harristeetersrtour.com, or call Dennis McCormac at (704) 844-8264.

Rules Of Golf Changes For 2008 Set By USGA And R&A

Far Hills, N.J. — Beginning in 2008, a golfer will be allowed to lift a ball for identification in a bunker or water hazard. However, there now will be a two-stroke penalty for playing a wrong ball from a hazard. In match play, the penalty will be loss of hole. These notable changes to Rules 12-2 and 15-3, which have been under consideration for several years, are among the amendments to the Rules of Golf agreed upon by the United States Golf Association and R&A Rules Limited that will be in effect starting Jan. 1, 2008.

“There are a number of reasons for this significant change that will allow a player to lift a ball in a hazard for identification,” said James T. Bunch, Chairman of the USGA’s Rules of Golf Committee. “First, there are already several Rules, such as Rules 5-3 (Ball Unfit for Play) and 22-2 (Ball Interfering with Play), that allow or require a player to lift his ball from a hazard, so the idea of lifting and then replacing a ball lying in a hazard is nothing new.

“Second, this provision will eliminate many difficult and unfortunate situations that occurred under the present version of Rule 12-1. For example, there is the case of a player who finds a ball in a hazard that may be his, and he then hits it out of bounds, without ever really knowing whether it was his ball. Third, there is the general principle that the elimination of one large exception from the Rules will only lead to a more consistent and understandable code.”

Another notable change is the reduction in penalty in Rule 4-1 for carrying, but not using, a non-conforming club from disqualification to, in stroke play, a penalty of two strokes per hole, with a maximum penalty of four strokes for the round.

The penalty for the accidental deflection of a ball by a player, his partner or either of their caddies or equipment under Rule 19-2 will be reduced to one penalty stroke in both match play and stroke play. (In 2007, the penalty was loss of hole in match play and two strokes in stroke play.)

For more details on the Rules changes, please visit www.usga.org.

The Rules are reviewed jointly by the USGA and The R&A Rules Limited. Any proposed change must be agreed by both bodies before it can be adopted. The Rules of Golf are revised on a four-year cycle. The USGA is the governing body of golf in the United States and Mexico, while The R&A is the governing body in all other parts of the world.

Thompson Claims Inaugural Super Senior Championship

Camden SC - First round leader Rick Thompson struggled, but managed to finish with a two day total of 145 to win the Inaugural Harry Wilson Super Senior Championship at Camden Country Club.

Thompson, a Bluffton resident, followed his "career" round of 69 yesterday with a 6 over par 76 in the final round. The 70 year old

Thompson started the day with a birdie on his first hole, but then quickly ran into trouble playing the next six holes in five over par. Thompson righted the ship however, finishing the last eleven holes in only two over par and holding off Sandy Knapp of Callawassie to win by two. Dick Horne of Mt. Pleasant finished in 3rd place at 149.

In the Championship B division, Gunnar Bennett hit 15 greens in regulation to shoot a final round 74 and a two day total of 157 to win by two shots over John Stokley and Jack Pfeiffer.

The Inaugural SCGA Super Senior Championship was played on the par 70 – 5,932 yard Camden Country Club in Camden, S.C. The event was created to honor the 40 years of service to the SCGA by Harry Wilson. The field consisted of 60 individuals over the age of 65 years old playing a Stroke play format conducted over thirty six holes. The Super Senior Championship is one of 18 Major Championships conducted annually by the South Carolina Golf Association.

Great play abounds at the Tradition Four Ball

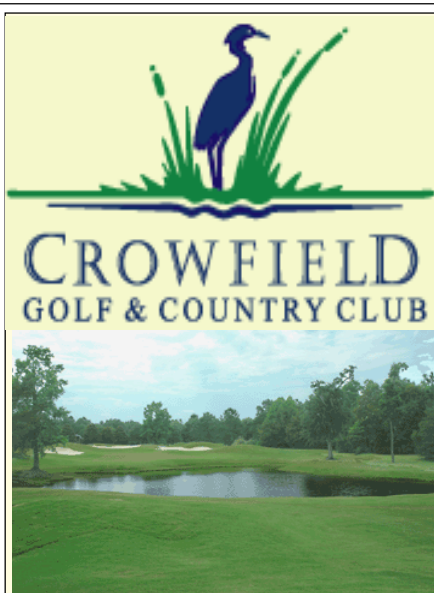

Taylors SC — The great weekend continued as great play and terrific weather was the story behind the 2007 Tradition Four Ball. The Links Course of Pebble Creek Country Club played host to the 77 teams from all over South Carolina. After four teams were tied at 65 overnight, the results were deadlocked after 36 holes of play in the older boys action. Keeping the Quad theme alive, four teams teed off in sudden death to determine the 2007 champions after they all finished regulation play at 11 under par. After five holes and pending darkness, Hayden Letien and Thomas Bradshaw came away with the title. Miller Capps and Jackson Moore fired a tournament record 134 total to win the boys 13-14 division by three shots. The girl's division also had some great play as defending champion Rachel Uremovich and her partner Austin Ernst won by two shots with a two day total of 140. This was Uremovich's fourth title in this championship. The Boys 10-12 has Austin Langdale and Carson Young as the 2007 champions as they defeated Wesley Long and Charlie Spencer-White on the second hole of sudden death. Both teams finished the tight competition at 71 and a 15 foot birdie by Langdale sealed the title. The Girls 10-13 had some close competition as defending champions Collins Bradshaw and Mary Chandler Bryan were just two back heading into the final round. They matched rounds of 36 with Morgan Webber and McKenzie Talbert in the final round and could not make up the slim deficit. Webber and Talbert finished the event at two under 70, no small feat as the boys 10-12 played the same yardage with 71's playing off for their title. The Tradition Four Ball dates back to 1995 and players such as Lucas Glover, Bill Haas, DJ Trahan, and Kyle Thompson have all been part of this must play championship. Tournament Chair, Rick Vieth, said: "The membership really enjoys this championship and it is truly a treat seeing the stars of tomorrow here at Pebble Creek. We look forward to having all of the families here in Greenville and supporting junior golf at the same time." Bill Knupp and his company BB&T Barnes Insurance is back again as the title sponsor. They have been one of the SCJGA's longest running sponsors, many thanks go out to the entire organization.

Junior Golfers Cheraw Bound

Cheraw — With trademark hospitality, the town of Cheraw is expecting 167 families to venture into the town limits for the 13th playing of the Cheraw Fall Challenge. The Cheraw State Park Golf Club and Cheraw Country Club are, once again, hosting the largest junior event on the SCJGA schedule. The town of Cheraw and the South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation, and Tourism are presenting sponsors for this family favorite championship. The younger nine hole players will be hosted by the Country Club, while the older players will compete over the State Park layout. Wesley Bryan will have his hands full trying to defend as the state's number one player, Jacob Burger, is in the field. Rachel Uremovich is playing strong as of late, but there are a number of players that can give her a run for the championship and keep her from adding another SCJGA title to her impressive resume.

Truett Charges to Victory

Georgetown SC - Sammy Truett came from two behind with a final round score of 66 and a tournament total of 210 to capture the 2007 SCGA Mid Amateur Championship at the DeBordieu Club.

Truett, a Surfside resident, came out on a mission making birdie on 7 of the first 10 holes he played. Truett's front nine score of 30 was the lowest on that side for the week and gave him a three shot cushion heading into the final nine.

The closest anyone could get however, was within two shots after Truett bogied the tough par four 15th hole. A birdie on the 17th hole gave the 45 year old Insurance Agent the room he needed to capture his first individual SCGA Championship.

First and Second round leader Rion Moore from Georgetown and the 2006 Defending Champion Steve Liebler finished tied for 2nd at four under par 212. Rick Cloninger from Ft. Mill and Todd Hendley from Simpsonville wrapped up the top 5 with scores of 214 and 215 respectively.

The 2007 SCGA Mid-Amateur Championship was played on the Pete & PB Dye designed par 72 ~ 6,937 yard DeBordieu Club course in Georgetown, SC. The field consisted of 120 individuals playing 54 holes of stroke play and was cut to the low 60 and ties after the second round. The Mid-Amateur is one of 18 Major Championships conducted by the South Carolina Golf Association and is in its 26th year of existence.

2007 Carolinas Team with the Captain's Putter

WINSTON-SALEM, NC - The Carolinas team, propelled by a strong singles performance, won the Carolinas-Virginias team matches at Old Town Club. Securing a 17-7 win in the singles, the Carolinas added to their previous 15-9 lead for the victory over the Virginias. Team Captain Arnold Edwards of Charlotte, NC was pleased with the team's effort. "I am glad to be going out as captain with a 2-0 record," said Edwards who served a two-year stint as captain. "I even got to contribute to last year's win as a player and captain which made it even sweeter!" The Team Matches are a Ryder Cup-like event featuring a 24-man team of top regular and senior amateur players from North and South Carolina against their counterparts from the Virginia and West Virginia. The matches, conducted jointly by the Carolinas Golf Association, the Virginia State Golf Association, and the West Virginia Golf Associations are played at four-ball match play, foursomes match play (alternate shot), and singles match play competitions with one point at stake in each match. This is the third consecutive win for the Carolinas who leads the series 45-16-1.

Kennedy catches fire to win 40 Plus

Brian Kennedy of Woodruff captured the Greenwood Country Club 40 Plus event with a 6 under par 66. Kennedy carded 7 birdies and 1 bogey to edge out David Dupre of Blythewood by a shot. Dennis Schwab of Simpsonville, Steven Scott of Mauldin, and Joe Robinson of Rock Hill finished tied for third after shooting rounds of 1 under par 71. In the net division,

Mike Robinson of Greenville carded a 6 under par 66 to claim top honors. The 40 Plus is a series of events conducted for the "baby boomer" golfers across South Carolina, over the age of 40. The field consisted of 98 players, playing on the 6430 yard Greenwood Country Club in Greenwood SC. This event was the fifth of seven 40 Plus events the SCGA will conduct in 2007. The next 40 Plus event will be held on November 13th at Musgrove Mill Golf Club in Clinton, SC.

Orlando Golfer Grabs AGT's National Title

HILTON HEAD, S.C. — Nothing, not even a missed one-inch putt, could keep Chad Frank from winning the Amateur Golf Tour's 2007 National Championship.

Frank, last year's runner-up, posted his second straight 73 Sunday for a 146 total and a one-stroke victory in the Championship Flight. The 40-year-old from Orlando experienced an up-and-down final round. On the front nine he made two birdies to rally past the first-round leader. But on the back nine his lead evaporated and turned into a one-shot deficit when Frank barely glanced a tap-in putt on the 13th while trying to avoid stepping in his competitor's line.

"If I had lost, I would have really felt bad about that putt. It was unbelievable," said Frank, winner of nine of his 11 tournaments on the AGT's Orlando Tour this year. "I said, 'I'm not going to let this cost me.' I got a little fired up."

After the putting mishap, Frank drained an 18-footer for birdie at No. 14, then made par the rest of the way to edge Andrew Smith of the Triad (NC) Tour.

"I hit every green coming in and played solid," Frank said. "It feels good to come back and win it and not finish second again. You work all year for this."

Smith shot 73-74—147 to finish second, while defending champ Joe Jaspers of Charlotte placed third at 75-73—148.

Top honors in the A Flight went to Bob Potter of the Charleston (SC) Tour. Potter fired a final-round 77 to finish at 155. Second place in A Flight went to Cincinnati's Joe Mergler (77-79—156), while Steve Schultz of Nashville was third at 78-79—157.

The B Flight champ was Kirk Kleiser of the Louisiana Tour. Kleiser shot 82-80—162 for a one-shot victory over Ron Hensley (80-83—163) of the Tri-Cities (TN) Tour.

The Louisiana Tour also produced the C Flight champion as William Duncan vaulted into the top spot with an 84 for a 175 total. Second place went to John R. Holland (Asheville NC) at 88-89—177.

In the D Flight, Doug Turnau (Charleston SC) shot a 178 total and posted a one-stroke victory over Frank Daniels (Upstate SC).

This marked the second straight year the AGT has hosted its national championship on Hilton Head Island. This year's field of 550 golfers was the largest ever for a golf tournament on the island. Competition took place on six courses: three at Palmetto Dunes Resort, two at Port Royal Plantation and one at Oyster Reef Golf Club.

Mike Nasekos of Charlotte recorded a hole-in-one Sunday on the Robert Trent Jones layout at Palmetto Dunes. Nasekos, playing in the B Flight, aced the 162-yard eighth hole with a 4-iron. It was his first ace and won him a free golf vacation, courtesy of Perks and Pats Vacations.

In team competition, the Louisiana Tour took the cup away from defending champion Orlando. Louisiana's team total was 1,292, followed by Orlando (1,306), Charlotte (1,318) and Tidewater VA (1,335).

One Saturday morning, I got up early, dressed quietly, slipped quietly into the garage to put my golf clubs into the trunk, and proceeded to back out into a torrential downpour. There was snow mixed with rain, and the wind was howling at about 50 mph. I pulled back into the garage, turned on the radio, and discovered that the weather would be bad all day. I went back into the house, quietly undressed, and slipped back into bed. There I cuddled up to my wife's back, now with a different anticipation, and whispered, "The weather out there is terrible." My loving wife of over 30 years replies, "Can you believe my stupid husband is out there golfing in that shit?" I still don't know if she was joking
